

The Re-Enrollment Process

Thank you for partnering with JECA this year. It was a hard year on many fronts. From our hurried workdays to spruce the place up in August, to the rigors of changing your schedules to accommodate homeschooling, and certainly to the many dozens of hours that were volunteered each week to make the school run....THANK YOU!!

Though hard, it was special. And now, by God's provision, we move back to something that will be more settled. At the same time, we are expanding our options, as you know, to allow you to choose a 3 or 5 day at-school option.

We look forward to partnering with you again. Here's how:

1. Complete the Re-Enrollment Application completely. All information must be provided before your child will be considered. Please return all pages of the application.
2. Submit the application to the JECA office with the payment of the non-refundable $95 Application Fee.
3. After formal acceptance, you will need to submit the following:
  - a. Re-Registration with FACTS Management Company (if paying tuition in more than two installments). If you are paying in one or two installments, please note the deadlines listed herein. See link on website.
  - b. Immunization Records (if updated)
  - c. Emergency Information and Medical Release Form
  - d. Payment of Enrollment Fee and Book Fees
  - e. Application for Tuition Grant (for applicable families). See link on website.
  - f. Payment of Tuition (see schedule of three options on page 6)
4. Tell a friend.

MISSION STATEMENT

Jonathan Edwards Classical Academy exists to assist Christian families in rearing their children to be lifelong learners who, with wisdom and beauty, shape and influence their world for Christ.

We do this by...

- Acknowledging a providential and saving God in all of our ways,
- Instilling a love of competent learning,
- Cultivating a culture of virtuous childhood,

And further, by providing for every student...

- Professional teachers who ascribe everything to God and competently model the role of an eager learner.
- Curriculum that has stood the test of time and content that favors the best kinds of things.
- An environment that is rich in love, courtesy, deference and honor.

STATEMENT OF FAITH

We believe in one God eternally existing in three persons, of one substance, power and authority, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. The whole universe was created by God from nothing for His own pleasure. He is rightfully sovereign and rules over all creation. He is entirely good and gracious, all-powerful, all knowing and all loving. (Matthew 28:19; II Corinthians 13:14; Genesis 1:31; John 1:3)

We believe that man was originally created in the image of God to enjoy fellowship with God. In Adam's sin, humanity was alienated from God and it is now man's nature to be disobedient to God. However, man still bears God's image and thus has dignity and worth. Nevertheless, man's sin causes him to be separated from God and utterly lost. (Genesis 1:27; Romans 3:11; Romans 5:12; John 1:3)

We believe that Jesus Christ was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, and that He is both undiminished deity and genuine humanity in one person forever. (John 1:1; Matthew 1:20-21; Philippians 2:7)

We believe that entrance into a state of fellowship with God is secured entirely by God's grace through a person's belief that Jesus Christ bore our sins in His sacrificial death, was bodily resurrected from the dead and was glorified as Lord and Ruler of all creation. This faith and the outworking of it are evidence of God's salvation unto eternal life. (John 1:12; I Timothy 2:6; Romans 10:9; Ephesians 2:8-10)

We believe the Holy Spirit convicts men of sin, regenerates them from spiritual death to spiritual life, and is responsible for continuing the work of Christ in believers. Christians are thus enabled by His indwelling presence to enjoy God and to grow in Christ-likeness. The chief means and fruit of growth are: intimacy with God through the study and observance of His Word, prayer, worship and the sacraments, active love of fellow Christians, and being salt and light to the world. (John 16:8; Titus 3:5-6; John 16:13-14; II Peter 1:5-8; John 17:17; Colossians 3:14-17; Matthew 5:13-16)

We believe the 66 books of Holy Scripture as originally given are the complete Word of God, without error, divinely inspired, recorded by men, and are the supreme and final authority in faith and life. (II Timothy 3:16; II Peter 1:21; Hebrews 4:12-13)

ASSUMPTIONS

The administration, faculty and staff of JECA are fully aware of the God-appointed role of authority and influence that parents (and especially fathers) have over their children. They acknowledge that the foundation of the school's authority over each student is an authority that is granted from the parents for the limited time of oversight on a daily basis. JECA will seek to complement and reinforce the model of a biblical home and order.

PARENTAL COMMITMENTS

- I will work together with the teacher to achieve maximum growth in both Christian character and intellect in my child, understanding that this necessarily requires a high standard of conduct and attitude toward learning.
- I have read the school's Mission Statement and Statement of Faith and desire to have my child trained in accord with these principles. I will do my best to reinforce and model these principles in my home.
- I understand that this school relies on parental cooperation and involvement, so my family will be willing to volunteer to help the school. This may include participating in "work days," assisting the teacher in the classroom, reading stories to the children, lunch duty, field trips, light manual labor and/or housekeeping, or other jobs as called upon. I will work with the school to determine how I can help meet the school's needs, and I will advise the school of any talent, skill or expertise I have that may particularly benefit the school.
- I understand the school is seeking through its development office to actively and purposefully raise funds that will improve the school and add benefit to it. In fact, the school depends heavily upon gracious gifts to meet its basic needs. I will purpose to remember the school as I come in contact with people and businesses that may be willing to donate from their abundance to help JECA fulfill its mission statement.
- I will provide a quiet, organized and settled time and place for my child to do homework every day.
- The faculty and administration will have my full cooperation in the discipline of my child(ren), according to the school's Discipline Policy.
- I agree that my regular habit for dealing with problems I have with the school will be to follow the biblically-mandated pattern shown in Matthew 18.
- I understand and accept that IF I AM OFFERED AND ACCEPT ENROLLMENT at JECA, I will be responsible for the full year's tuition for my child(ren) whether or not my child(ren) complete the full year (for any reason). I further agree to comply with the policies and procedures of the tuition management company that is contracted by the school.

- I understand that this is still a new and growing school with a grand vision and is not what it will be in the coming years. I will seek to be understanding and accommodating to the growing pains that come with a new institution and will seek to be as helpful as I can possibly be to make the transition a sweet and godly success.
- I have read Discover Classical Christian Education: The Essential Guide for Parents. I have also read all statements in this admissions application. When time permits, I will also read Dorothy Sayers' Lost Tools of Learning and Douglas Wilson's The Case for Classical Christian Education.
- I understand that JECA makes no guarantee of admission to any applicant. While JECA may choose to reveal the results of academic testing to parents, no other information will be given to applicants regarding the basis for admissions decisions.
- I agree to waive, release, indemnify and/or hold harmless the JECA School Board and employees from any claim that may arise out of injury to my child or any member of my family. I intend for this agreement to apply to all situations and circumstances, whether at the school or during off-premises school-related activities, and whether caused by me or by the negligent or intentional conduct of my child, another student, another parent, a JECA School Board member or employee, or any other person.

PARENTS' PLEDGE

Parental support and participation is vital to the success of Jonathan Edwards Classical Academy. The school was founded by parents who are/were committed to playing an active role in the education of their children. The school believes that parents (primarily fathers) are responsible to educate their children and that the Christian school is simply an instrument to be used by parents as they choose.

Therefore, I/we pledge to:

- Pray earnestly and regularly for Jonathan Edwards Classical Academy.
- Actively support the policies, standards, and programs of the school.
- Pay all tuition and fees on time and to notify the headmaster directly if unable to do so.
- Participate willingly in activities the school deems necessary.
- Pay for any damage my child causes to school property.
- Keep in regular contact with my child's teachers to assess my child's progress.
- Speak directly to the headmaster or staff person in question regarding areas of disagreement with the school or staff, rather than spread criticism.

I so pledge:

Discipline Policy

The expectations for student behavior are very high at JECA. We have no tolerance for disrespect, dishonesty, rebellion, fighting, and obscene language. The goal of all discipline at JECA is Christ-likeness. Discipline is exercised in a spirit of grace, compassion, love and humility. Parental responsibility and cooperation in disciplinary matters is expected and strongly emphasized.

The kind and amount of discipline will be determined by the teachers and, if necessary, the headmaster. The discipline will be administered in light of the individual student's problem and attitude. All discipline will be based on biblical principles, e.g. restitution, apologies (public and private), swift/painful punishment, restoration of fellowship, and the absence of unsavory attitudes. The vast majority of discipline problems are to be dealt with at the classroom level. In order to maintain consistency, the teachers will regularly meet together to discuss biblical standards and school guidelines concerning discipline.

We believe that the Scriptures speak to every aspect of man's behavior. Therefore we have chosen not to discipline according to methods based upon presuppositions of secular philosophies (i.e., evolution and godlessness). Behavioristic techniques such as threats, bribes, promises and demerits, along with award points, may constrain behavior, but do not speak to the central issue of behavior. They are meant to provide temporary control in the classroom, not train the child's heart according to the way he should go. Children are created for a relationship with the living God, and we know that the things they say and do are a reflection of the abundance of their heart (Mark 7); therefore any correction and discipline must address a specific heart issue. We desire, in correction and discipline, to be motivated to understand and help our students understand the overflow of their hearts. This instruction and correction will take place in the classroom when possible. If time does not permit the teacher to talk with a child about the attitudes of his heart that result in disobedient and disruptive behavior, the child will be required to speak with the headmaster. The teacher or headmaster will contact the parents in these circumstances.

It is vital for both parents and students to realize that maintaining an orderly atmosphere in the school and the classroom is critical to the learning process. What is more important, it is reflective of the principles and absolutes in the Holy Scriptures.

JECA reserves the right to administer corporal discipline for major offenses or continued minor offenses. This point will be dealt with in detail during the parent interview.

There are five basic behaviors that will automatically require discipline from the administration (versus the teacher only). Those behaviors are:

1. Disrespect shown to any staff member. The staff member will judge if disrespect has been shown.
2. Dishonesty in any situation while at school, including lying, cheating, and stealing.
3. Rebellion, i.e. outright disobedience in response to instruction or correction.
4. Fighting, any physical force used with the intention to harm or intimidate another student or staff member.
5. Obscene language, including taking the name of the Lord in vain.

1. The first three times a student is sent to the Administrator's office for discipline, the student's parents will be contacted and given the details of the visit. The Administrator will make a note of each occasion when the parents are contacted after the office visit, and enter that record in the student's file. A letter detailing the discipline will be sent to the parents after each incident. The parent's assistance and support in averting further problems will be sought.

2. A fourth instance of the behavior problem will call for a two-day in-house suspension. Another meeting with the student's parent will be required for the student's re-admittance.

3. The next occurrence will result in expulsion.

**BOTH PARENTS SHOULD INITIAL THIS PAGE, AND IT SHOULD BE RETURNED AS PART OF THE APPLICATION.
