

Jonathan Edwards Classical Academy
Grammar School Teacher Job Description
Reports to: Head of Grammar

SUMMARY: Grammar School teachers at JECA are responsible to instruct in an educational environment where students can learn to develop their love for Christ's created order as they discover the truth, goodness, and beauty in all facets of human knowledge that are aligned with our classical and Christian curriculum. Teachers must present effectively the necessary tools of learning that prepare students for success in each grade and beyond graduation.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: The ideal teaching candidate will be a continuous learner who embraces the ethos of the Classical, Christian model of education. Teachers are expected consistently to exhibit love, joy, peace, and spiritual maturity before students and the rest of the school. They are expected to model the virtue of a classical student by exhibiting a love for learning and reading. They are to share knowledge in order to promote student success and involve parents in the learning process. Fostering a collegial spirit and collaboration with other employees in order to maximize interdependence, strength, and cohesive partnership under the authority of the mission of the school is critically important. They must present curriculum with efficiency and flexibility and maintain a neat, organized, clean, and stimulating classroom environment for students. They must handle most discipline problems in the classroom and instruct while utilizing the objectives, materials, priorities, and methods prescribed in the appropriate curriculum documents. An ideal candidate must reflect honestly on their shortcomings that need to be addressed.
